

Contents

List of Acronyms	vi
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. Guilty of Being Poor: A Brief Itinerary in the Recent History of American Welfare	29
Chapter 2. What Does “Racial Disproportionality” Mean and How Is Tackled? Genesis, Interpretations, and Practices	52
Chapter 3. Revolving Door: The Work of Child Welfare in Making Parents Chronically Unfit	72
Chapter 4. Contesting Child Welfare: Perceptions, Negotiations, and Counternarratives	99
Chapter 5. The Moral Economies of Community Participation: New Forms of Governance and Representative Ambiguities	122
Conclusion	142
References	154
Index	169