

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vi
Notes on the Text	vii
Abbreviations and Glossary of Organisations	viii
Introduction. Tracing Black Lisbon	1
Chapter 1. First Steps: O Negro , Republican Mobilisation and Radical Internationalism	22
Chapter 2. A Politics of Ambivalence at the Centre of Empire: The Junta for the Defence of African Rights (1912–1913)	42
Chapter 3. Disaggregation, Renovation and Interim Organisation: The Demise of the Junta and the Creation of the Liga Africana (1914–1919)	88
Chapter 4. Between Mobilisation and Military Rule: Black African Movements between 1919 and 1926	119
Chapter 5. Pragmatism and Survival: The Unitary Nationalist African Movement	166
Conclusion. The End of Independent Black Voices	197
Bibliography	209
Index	231