

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction. On the Materiality of Unseen Things Diana Espirito Santo and Jack Hunter	1
PART I. BODILY SEMANTICS, METAPHOR, AND MEDIATION
Chapter 1. Organicism and Psychical Research: Where Mediums and Mushrooms Meet Jack Hunter	25
Chapter 2. Semantics of the Suffering: Torture Technologies and Mediumship in Buenos Aires Miguel Algranti	46
Chapter 3. Media Technologies and the Otherworld in Late Socialist Vietnam Gertrud Hüwelmeier	67
Chapter 4. Broken Words: Tools of Oracular Articulatory in Afro-Cuban Divination Anastasios Panagiotopoulos	90
PART II. ORDERS OF SOUND, SIGHT, AND MEASUREMENT
Chapter 5. Radioaficionados and UFOs: The Social Life of Radios in Chile Diana Espirito Santo	111
Chapter 6. Hospitality and Proof: Human Mediums, Technical Media, and Controversial Knowledge in Ghost-Hunting Practices in the United States Ehler Voss	132

Chapter 7. Picturing the Unseen: Polaroid Practice and the Re-enchantment of the Western World Andrea Lathrop Ligueros	153
PART III. MATTERING INVISIBLE POWERS
Chapter 8. Specters of Climate and the Construction of Ghostly Realities in Brazil Renzo Taddei	179
Chapter 9. Ontological Opportunism: Reanimating the Inanimate in Physics and Science Communication at CERN Anne Dippel	200
Chapter 10. Phantom Power, Parallax, and the Multiple Cities of Luanda: Manifestation and Materialization in Angola Ruy Liera Blanes	222
Conclusion. Mediation and Variable Communications Diana Espírito Santo and Jack Hunter	243
Index	259