

Contents

Introduction	1
Patrizia Dogliani and Maximiliano Fuentes Codera
Chapter 1 Neutralities in the Battlefield: Spain, Italy and Argentina during the First World War	12
Maximiliano Fuentes Codera and Carolina García Sanz
Chapter 2 Latinizing the Russia of the Soviets: The Influence of Italian Socialism in Spain and Argentina after the First World War	39
Steven Forti
Chapter 3 Italian Anarcho-syndicalism: Connections and Links between Spain and Argentina	68
Marco Masulli
Chapter 4 Machiavelli and Republicanism: Readings and Receptions in Argentina and Spain (1920–40)	90
Leandro Losada
Chapter 5 The Idea of Latinità in the Political Culture of Fascism in Latin America: The Argentine Case	117
Federica Bertagna
Chapter 6 Italian Fascist Cultural Intervention in the Spanish World, 1938–43	140
Patrizia Dogliani
Chapter 7 Circulating Fascisms: Mussolini, Hitler and Hispanidad in Argentina	166
Federico Finchelstein
Conclusions	186
Maximiliano Fuentes Codera and Patrizia Dogliani
Index	191