

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi

Introduction. Exploring Affective Materiality and Atmospheres of Home	1
Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto, Kristiina Korjonen-Kuusipuro, Viktorija L.A. Čeginskas, Anna Kajander and Helmut De Nardi

Part I Autobiographical Materiality

1. Bridging Homes in Space and Time: An Autoethnographic Exploration of Affective Materiality across Generations	17
Maja Povrzanović Frykman
2. Objects as Catalysts: How Absent Objects Connect Memory, Family History and Transnational Mobility	37
Viktorija L.A. Čeginskas
3. Home, a Place Not to Feel	54
Tomás Errázuriz

Part II Continuity through Materiality

4. Material Memories of Lost Karelia: Affective Reminders of Ancestral Villages in the Finnish Second World War Evacuee Families' Homes	75
Oula Seitsonen
5. Erased Landscapes and Reconstructed Cultures: The Effect of Materiality on Identity-Rebuilding Processes of Karelian People	98
Maarit Sireni

6. Adopted Heritage and the Rightness of Things: The ‘Uncanny’ in the Creation of Home and Belonging Anna Kurpiel and Katarzyna Maniak	117
Part III Engagements with Affective Materiality
7. Constructing Affective Atmospheres at Home: Materiality and Meaningful Objects of Kink Johanna Pohjonen	137
8. Craft Making at Home: Affective Practices of Coping with the COVID-19 Pandemic Anna Rauhala	160
9. Longing and Belonging: Exploring the Affective Role of Materiality in an International Adoption Case Giovanna Bacchiddu	175
Part IV Essays: Material Traces and Future Visions
10. Every Thing You Own or Have Ever Owned Gabriel Moshenska	193
11. Fair Futures Robert Willim	200
Conclusion Helmut De Nardi	208
Index	215