

Contents

Introduction.

- Anthropological Ideas of Pollution Revisited:
Categories, Values and the Legacy of Mary Douglas 1
Rebecca Lynch and Roland Littlewood

Part I. Bodies, Dirt and Place

Chapter 1.

- Three Doings of Excretory Dirt: Disgust, Humour, Emphasis 19
Sjaak van der Geest
Appendix: Akan (Twi) Proverbs about 'Shit' and Related Terms 31

- Chapter 2. Leaky Bodies and the Dynamic Relationality of Matter and Place 36
Rebecca Lynch

Chapter 3.

- 'Yesterday's Coffee Is Tomorrow's Coffee': The Body,
Human Waste and Off-World Living 56
Aaron Parkhurst and David Jeevendrampillai

Part II. Notions of Purity and Moral Inversion

Chapter 4.

- Filth As Faith: Stories of Antinomian Pollution 75
Roland Littlewood

Chapter 5.
Orgasmic Excess and Alienation: Non-Productive Capitalist Bodies as Pollution	89
Ellie Reynolds
Chapter 6.
Psychopharmacological Purity Doctrines and the Inertia of Cruelty: Using Mary Douglas and René Girard to Understand the War on Drugs	108
Joseph Calabrese
Part III. Disgust
Chapter 7.
The Abominations of Leviticus Reconsidered: The Anthropology and Psychology of Pollution	137
Simon Dein
Chapter 8.
The Power of Taboo: Anthropological and Neurocognitive Perspectives	148
Quinton Deeley
Afterword.
Radioactive Pollution in Nevada and Kazakhstan: A Non-Scientific Voice for Victims	173
André Singer
Index	185