

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
Introduction. House/Keeping Sasha Newell	1
Part I Food Storage and Family Values
1. Food Abundance and the Storage of Tuberous Kin: The Houses of the Potato Park in the Peruvian Andes Olivia Angé In collaboration with: Aniceto Ccoyo, Ciprian Ccoyo, Bacilides Jancco, Lino Mamani, Daniel Pacco, Ricardina Pacco, Daniel Peres, Eliseo Puma, Brisayda Sicus, Mariano Sutta	35
2. Making Space for Onions: Material Production and Social Reproduction in Rural India Tanya Matthan	56
Part II Domestic Accumulation and Disorder
3. The “Stuffing” of Kinship: Containing Clutter and Expanding Relatedness in US Homes Sasha Newell	77
4. Topoanalysis: Hoarding, Memory, and the Materialization of Kinship Katie Kilroy-Marac	99
5. Locating Hoarding: How Spatial Concepts Shape Disorders in Japan and the Anglophone World Fabio Gygi	119

Part III Decluttering and Minimalist Aesthetics

6. Decluttering the House, Purifying the Self: Women Discarding Objects and Spiritualizing Everyday Life in Buenos Aires (Argentina) 145
María Florencia Blanco Esmoris
7. The American Garage Sale: Liberating Space and Creating Kin 163
Gretchen M. Herrmann
8. Minimalist Mortality: Decluttering as a Practice of Death Acceptance 183
Hannah Gould

Part IV Holding on to Rubbish: Trash and Transmutation

9. “It’s Not Waste, It’s Diamonds!”: Recovery Practices and Public Waste Management in Garoua and Maroua (Cameroon) 203
Émilie Guitard
10. Where Would We Be Without Rubbish? 228
Michael Thompson
- Afterword. The Shape of Things to Come 255
Daniel Miller
- Index 264