

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Introduction. Concepts and Practices of Comparison in Modern History Willibald Steinmetz	1
1. Outlines of a Historical Epistemology of Comparison: From Descartes to the Early Nineteenth Century Michael Eggers	33
2. Comparative Practices and Their Implications: The Case of Comparative Viewing Johannes Grave	53
3. Above/Below, Better/Worse or Simply Different? Metamorphoses of Social Comparison, 1600–1900 Willibald Steinmetz	80
4. Empowering Comparisons? The Making of Republics in the Early Modern Period Lars Behrisch	113
5. Comparing Europe and the Americas: The Dispute of the New World between the Sixteenth and Nineteenth Centuries Angelika Epple	137
6. European Colonial Empires and Victorian Imperial Exceptionalism Alex Middleton	164
7. Comparison and the Welfare State in Modern Europe, c. 1880–1945 Julia Moses	191
8. Comparison, Rivalry and Competition under Neoliberalism and State Socialism David Priestland	214

---

9. Comparing Economic Activities on a Global Level in the 1920s and 1930s: Motives and Consequences Martin Bemmann	242
10. In Search of a Global Centre of Calculation: The Washington Statistical Conferences of 1947 Daniel Speich Chassé	266
11. Formalized Comparisons: Rankings and Status in Higher Education Wendy Espeland	288
12. Good – Better – Best: Comparisons and the Power of Ranking Orders Bettina Heintz	306
Index	333