

Contents

List of Figures	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction. Houses Transformed – Transforming Houses Rosalie Stolz	1
Chapter 1. Anthropology and the Study of Architecture at a Time of Rapid Change Marcel Vellinga	21
Chapter 2. Lives of the House: Tracing Kinship through the Biography of Houses in Norway Simone Abram and Marianne Lien	39
Chapter 3. The ‘New London Vernacular’: Architecture and the Politics of Community-Building in London’s Olympic Park Saffron Woodcraft	58
Chapter 4. The Changing Temporalities and Ecologies of House Production in an Age of Translocalisation: Instances in Kerala and West Bengal, India Elisa T. Bertuzzo	80

Chapter 5.
In Pursuit of a Modern Home: Shared Vernacular Temporalities and Modern Aspirations of the Nationals and Transnationals in Qatar	100
Gizem Kahraman
Chapter 6.
'There Are No Winds': Sensory Dimensions of the Shifting Materiality of Houses and the Community of Sounds in Northern Laos	120
Rosalie Stolz
Chapter 7.
'Pretty but Too Hot, It Smells Like Bat Urine': Public Funded Housing for a Waorani Village in Ecuadorian Amazonia	137
Andrea Bravo Díaz
Chapter 8.
The Social Creativity of Remittance Houses: Reconfiguring Space and Social Relations in Guatemala	155
Andrea Freddi
Chapter 9.
Not Vernacular Enough: Dwellings of No Architectural Significance and the New Anthropology of Housing	174
Eli Elinoff
Chapter 10.
Adobe Houses and State Social Housing in Rural Andean Bolivia	195
Jonathan Alderman
Chapter 11.
New Materials, Different Spatialities, Same Houses? Domestic Architectures and Techniques among Pastoralist Communities in the Andean Highlands (Jujuy, Argentina)	214
Julieta Barada and Jorge Tomasi
Chapter 12.
From Graves and Churches to Houses: Managing the Temporalities of Sociopolitical Presences in Vanuatu (Nineteenth–Twenty-First Centuries)	233
Marie Durand

Afterword	252
Jonathan Alderman
Index	258