

Contents

List of Illustrations, Figures, and Tables	vii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction	1
Sarah Surface-Evans, A. E. Garrison, and Kisha Supernant

Part I. Imagining Timescapes: Invoking Haunting, Memory, and Nostalgia

Chapter 1. Telling Ghost Stories: Communicating across Timescapes and between Worldviews	13
April M. Beisaw
Chapter 2. Material Memories: Interpreting Souvenirs and Heirlooms in the Archaeological Record	20
Erica Begun
Chapter 3. Journeys through Space and Time: Materiality, Social Memory, and Community at the City of David	33
Heather M. Van Wormer

Part II. Confronting Lingered Specters

Chapter 4. Recognizing Ghosts and Haunting in the Rural Midwest: Finding Community, Identity, and Wisdom in the Past	61
P. M. W. Lawton
Chapter 5. The Unwilling Student and the Ghost of Physical Anthropology: Public Perceptions of the Ethics of Physical Anthropology	72
Nicole M. Burt

Chapter 6. From Haunted to Haunting: Métis Ghosts in the Past and Present Kisha Supernant	85
Part III. Identifying Ghosts within the Capitalist Landscapes of Late Modernity
Chapter 7. Rain on the Scarecrow, Blood on the Plow: Haunting, Trauma, and the Cruelty of the Agrarian Dream Lilian Brislen	105
Chapter 8. Boneyard Quiet: A Ghost Story A. E. Garrison	120
Chapter 9. Traumascapes: Progress and the Erasure of the Past Sarah Surface-Evans	149
Chapter 10. Brickwork, Capitalism, Collective Memory, and the Commons Brigitte H. Bechtold	171
Epilogue. Ghosts, Haunting, and Refusals to Erasure Kisha Supernant, April M. Beisaw, A. E. Garrison, and Sarah Surface-Evans	185
Index	196