

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
Foreword
Conceptualizing Chinese Memories Jialin Liu and Raphael Woolf	ix
Introduction
Materiality, Imagination and the Memorable Katherine Swancutt	1
Part I. Curating Memories through Art and Film
1. The Memory Palace of a Chinese Painter Benoît Vermander	25
2. Jia Zhangke's Memory Project, 24 City : Rewriting History, Rethinking Historiography Chris Berry	55
Part II. Framing Memories through Literature and the Body
3. 'Swimming against the Current': The Mediation of Cultural Memory in the Writings by Christa Wolf and Ding Ling Yejun Zou	79
4. Chinese Body-Expression and Cultural Memory in Mo Yan's Big Breasts & Wide Hips Wei Luan	102
5. Remembering Statelessness in Food Stories from Jewish Shanghai Anna Reading	121

Part III. Propagating Memories through Storytelling

6. From Personal Connections to Mutual Trust: Building Memories with the Children of the Chinese Staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service Chihyun Chang	145
7. Jailhouse Blues, Storytelling and Becoming the Stuff of Legends in Southwest China Katherine Swancutt (苏梦林) and Jiarimuji (嘉日姆几)	181
Conclusion Layers, Traces, Fields and Storehouses of Memory Katherine Swancutt	206
Index	221